

Objective

On the 15th day of April, 2013, the Federal Court of Canada issued an Order outlining the terms of settlement in the matter of Manuge v Her Majesty The Queen, T-463-07 (the “Order”). The Order provided for the establishment of a fund, in the amount of $10 million dollars to be administered by Universities Canada for the benefit of Class Members and other beneficiaries as provided for in the Order. The Veterans Bursary Program has been established to disburse monies from the Bursary Fund.

Additional Class Members were added in 2021 as part of the settlement in the matter of Toth v Her Majesty The Queen, T-1068-14 (“Toth”).

Number, Value and Duration of Scholarships

- Class Members are eligible for one bursary. A Class Member may select one (1) eligible individual, other than themselves, to apply for the bursary. As outlined by the court, if you have already successfully designated your bursary, you are no longer eligible to apply.
- An applicant may be named by more than one Class Member to receive the bursary.
- This bursary is valued at $2,500 CAD as of program year 2021-2022, payable to the applicant (an increase of $1,200 CAD from previous years).
- Previous recipients of the bursary valued at $1,300 are eligible to receive an additional $1,200.

Eligibility

An eligible applicant is a Class Member of the above noted court order OR a Class Member’s spouse, child, grandchild, niece, nephew, son-in-law or daughter-in-law as selected by the Class Member. A Class Member’s child, grandchild, niece or nephew can be a:

- biological child;
- legally adopted child;
- stepchild;
- common-law child;
- ward in legal guardianship.

The eligible applicant must have pursued post-secondary studies sometime over the last five academic years (2019-2020 to 2023-2024).

If a Class Member is deceased, the official representative of the estate of the deceased may designate an applicant through the official declaration established in the settlement payment process. Information regarding the declaration process can be obtained by contacting Universities Canada (see page 4).

Eligible institutions

- An eligible institution is an institution in Canada including CÉGEPs, Career Colleges and Vocational/Technical Schools listed in the Directory of Universities, Colleges and Schools in the Provinces and Territories of Canada of the Canadian Information Centre for International Credentials (CICIC).

Field of Study / Program Requirements

- Studies must be at the post-secondary level and applicable towards a degree program (e.g. bachelor's, master's or doctorate), a professional degree program (e.g. education, law, medicine), a diploma/CEGEP program or a certificate program. The applicant must be currently enrolled in part-time or full-time post-secondary studies OR have been enrolled in part-time or full-time post-secondary studies at any time between the academic years of 2019-2020 and 2023-2024.
- Studies may be on-site, by correspondence, distance education or online.
- There are no restrictions on the field of study or discipline.

An eligible program is:

- a qualified educational program as defined by Canada Revenue Agency. It must run for at least three consecutive weeks and requires the applicant to spend at least ten hours a week throughout its duration on course work (including lecture time, practical training, laboratory work, research, and work assignments); or
- a specified educational program as defined by Canada Revenue Agency. It must require the applicant to spend not less than 12 hours per month on course work (including lecture time, practical training, laboratory work, research, and work assignments).

Conditions / Restrictions

- If an application for a bursary is deemed ineligible for payment for any reason, the Class Member will be able to either:
 - a) appoint a new applicant, provided the program requirements are met; OR
 - b) re-apply in a subsequent year.

Payment

- Following successful application for the bursary as outlined in the program guidelines, recipients should receive payment within eight weeks.
- Universities Canada will forward payment of the bursary by electronic fund transfer (EFT) to the bank account provided by the applicant.

- It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure that payment of tuition fees is made within the defined timeframe set by the educational institution regardless of the timing of the bursary payment.
- Bursary recipients will receive a T4A form from Universities Canada showing the full amount of the bursary paid to them during a calendar year. T4As will be available online in February of the next calendar year.

Application Process

The student is considered the owner of the application and must be eligible for the scholarship according to the program guidelines. The application must be completed and submitted by the student. Please add awards@univcan.ca to safe senders in your junk email options so that you continue to receive important messages from Scholarship Partners Canada (SPC).

Note: In compliance with Privacy Law, information about a student's application will not be released to anyone who has not been specifically authorized by the student. Third parties (parents, guardians, etc.) may contact SPC on behalf of the student, in person, by phone, or by email, to receive information about the application but only if authorized on the account. To add an individual to the file, the student must complete the "Access to File" section of the application.
