

GUIDELINES

As it is important to highlight the determination and commitment of Indigenous students in their school career, the Iron Ore Company of Canada is pleased to encourage students to pursue post-secondary studies and to support them in achieving their objectives by offering continuing education scholarships.

Here's what you need to know.

NUMBER, VALUE, AND DURATION OF SCHOLARSHIPS

Nine scholarships valued at $2500 Canadian are available to eligible students at the bachelor's degree or college diploma level. These scholarships are available for up to five years or until a first degree or diploma is obtained.

ELIGIBILITY

You are eligible if you:

- Are a member of one of the following Indigenous nations or communities:
 - Innu Nation
 - Matimekush Lac-John
 - Naskapi Nation of Kawawachikamach
 - NunatuKavut Community Council
- Are planning to start full-time studies in your first bachelor's degree or college diploma program in Fall 2025.
- Are planning to graduate or have graduated with a high-school or college diploma between 1 August 2024 and 31 July 2025.

ELIGIBLE INSTITUTIONS

You can study at Canadian educational institutions that have recognized degree, diploma granting powers or their affiliates (e.g., universities, colleges).

FIELDS OF STUDY PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Your program of study is restricted to the following IOC-related fields of study as accepted by IOC:

- o Engineering (mechanical, electrical, civil, mining, automation, etc.)
- o Geology
- o Health, safety and the environment
- o Human resources
- o Finances
- o Marketing
- o Information technology/information systems
- o Business administration (commerce)
- o Communications
- o Mechanical and electrical maintenance

CONDITIONS/RESTRICTIONS

- If you start post-secondary studies in January, you are eligible for the summer competition of the same year.
- If you have previously held an Iron Ore Company of Canada Scholarship, you are eligible to re-apply, but only if you have previously completed a college diploma and are planning to enter into a program leading to a first bachelor's degree.
- The Iron Ore Company of Canada retains the right to change or end the sponsorship of the scholarship plan without notice.

HOW TO APPLY?

To apply for the scholarship, please submit an online application no later than 1:00 PM EDT, June 26, 2025, by visiting https://portal.scholarshippartners.ca/welcome/IronOre_EN/

Remember, the application must be completed and submitted by you and not by your parent or guardian. If you have questions, please contact SPC at <https://spc.univcan.ca/>

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS:

- Transcripts of the last three terms of available marks. Home school grades will only be accepted if they have been validated through a recognized independent evaluation process.
- A 150 to 200-word personal statement. The personal statement should describe who you are, your interests and future goals, and your connection and engagement with your Indigenous community.

Remember, your application must be complete to be evaluated, and deadline extensions will not be granted.

EVALUATION CRITERIA

Applications are assessed on academic performance and the quality of personal statement.

SELECTION PROCESS

Selection of scholarship recipients will be made by each participating community in accordance with their own practices and in collaboration with representatives of the Iron Ore Company of Canada.

All applicants will receive confirmation by email of the results of the selection process, once available.

SUCCESSFUL APPLICANTS

You will receive scholarship confirmation in August. When you receive your confirmation, complete the online acceptance process and submit any necessary documentation, which includes proof of registration from your educational institution.

SCHOLARSHIP PAYMENT

Payment will be made after the acceptance process and document review. It can take 6 to 8 weeks, depending on the method of payment chosen. SPC will forward payment of the scholarship to the scholarship recipient by electronic funds transfer (EFT) on behalf of the Iron Ore Company of Canada.

Please make sure to pay your tuition fees within the defined time frame, regardless of the timing of scholarship payment.

We will communicate with you through your student portal account. Be sure to keep contact information up to date and to notify us of any changes.

The Iron Ore Company of Canada has entrusted the administration of its scholarship program to SPC, a division of Universities Canada. We administer over 140 scholarship programs for corporations, government agencies, and private foundations in North America and are affiliated with top companies in almost every sector of the economy.
